Scarface (1932) - IMDb

The controversial film of Scarface, directed by Howard Hawks, was one of the most violent of the 30s gangster films (the first in which a gangster uses a machine gun). Although it was filmed in 1930, its release was delayed for two years, until Scarface had been altered to placate the censors.

Gangster Films - Crimeculture

The film is not so much a story about rising criminality, betrayal, and ruthless corruption as it is a deconstruction of gangster mythology. Through the rise and fall of Tony Camonte's takeover, Hawks delineates the failure of myth to sustain the character's sense of impregnability, an essential function of its being.
