Wayne Grudem's Systematic Theology is the best modern one volume systematic theology I know of. Bavinck's is excellent, but it is a multi-volume Systematic Theology, and though it has become available in English fairly recently, it is an older work. This laminated sheet is an excellent summary of the very readable tome by Grudem.

Grudem's Systematic Theology has been the central text in a Systematic Theology Course I've been taking. Grudem diligently explores the detailed scriptural case for Calvinist theology and the TULIP tradition. Grudem's ability to skillfully move across and among traditions and understandings is remarkable.

Part 7 of this Systematic Theology deals with the study of the last things, Eschatology. Dr Grudem shows convincingly for me the support for the coming of Christ, the Final Judgment and Hell, the New Heavens and New Earth. With all these I agreed on most points, except the Millennium. Dr. Grudem is a Classic Premillennial.
