La Forza del Destino Verdi painted an immense canvas with this dark but tuneful opera, vividly brought to life in John Dexter's production, with sets by the great Eugene Berman. The legendary Leontyne Price is seen in one of her greatest roles, Leonora.

La Forza del Destino

La Forza del Destino With James Levine at the helm, Verdi's multi-faceted masterpiece is revealed as a drama of almost Shakespearean proportions. Superstar Plácido Domingo takes on the demanding role of Don Alvaro, the outcast whose noble gesture unwittingly sets the wheels of fate in motion and destroys an entire family.

La Forza del Destino

La forza del destino is one of Verdi's most ambitious scores. Its overture - which introduces us to the sinister motif signifying Fate - is one of his most memorable.

La forza del destino - Synopsis

The opera I have found that best fits this bill is La Forza del Destino. The melodrama in this piece is often maudlin, and we go long periods of time without seeing characters, at which point it would be easy to forget the character arcs or motivations without the expert composition of Verdi.

La Forza del Destino has always been one of my favorites in the Verdi canon. Starting with Grandmother's RCA Victor 78 of E. Caruso and A. Scotti singing the Act 3 duet "Solenne in quest'ora". I've seen a dozen or more productions over the years both in America (Lyric-Chicago, Met-New York) and Europe (Rome, Verona, Naples, London).
