Re: Dixie Boats (Are they reliable?) I've owned a 16' 1983 Dixie bow rider all the way until July when it became the possession of my neighbor across the street (since I own a bigger boat now I didn't have a use for it). I never had any trouble with it. It was (over) powered by a 115HP Mercury from 1996 to present, but was always fine.

The engine should be trimmed so that it is perpendicular to the water when the boat is running at full speed. On two-tube pontoon boats, trimming the motor does not signifi - cantly affect a boat's riding attitude in most cases. However, on three-tube pontoon boats with higher horsepower engines, the boat is likely to ride higher in the water.
