The Hunt 1 Andrew Fukuda

Chilling, creepy, visceral and exciting, Andrew Fukuda’s The Hunt is many things: Dystopian, paranormal, survivalist fantasy—but mainly, it’s good. The Story: In a world where ‘people’ are not at all like you and I lives a 17 year old boy named Gene. Gene is many things: A survivor, an expert at deception, but most of all a freak.

Macmillan: Series: The Hunt Trilogy

The Hunt by Andrew Fukuda. The Hunt begins with us learning that Gene is one of the only humans still alive in the world. We are never taken into how the vampires came to be the majority, but are told that the remaining “hepers” (humans), live in a Dome that is dawn/dusk time controlled to protect them for study, although really it is that they are to be used as a type of vote-getting tool for the Ruler when his approval rating falls and he holds a Heper Hunt.

The Hunt: Fukuda, Andrew, Runnette, Sean: Amazon.com.au: Books

The Hunt by Andrew Fukuda is the first in a brilliant new series. Fukuda has created a terrifying world in which vampires rule and humans are almost extinct. I consumed this dark tale in a few hours and it quickly became one of my favorite reads for 2012. Gone are the vampires that sparkle!
