The Bomb Girls mural. Photo courtesy OMEN. Created by Montreal-based artist OMEN in 2014, it pays homage to the women who worked tirelessly at the munitions plant. The mural is a colourful reminder of Toronto's wartime past. Additionally, a small number of the housing structures converted from the GECO plant can be seen near Warden and Eglinton Avenues. The story of the GECO munitions plant stands out as a testament to perseverance in an unprecedented time in Toronto's history.
